

Stocks fell last week as concerns about sticky inflation and the pace of economic growth rattled investors.

The Standard & Poor's 500 Index declined 1.66 percent, while the Nasdaq Composite Index dropped 2.51 percent. The Dow Jones Industrial Average also fell 2.51 percent. The MSCI EAFE Index, which tracks developed overseas stock markets, was essentially flat (+0.04 percent).^{1,2}

S&P 500 Hits New High, Then Slips

Following the Presidents' Day holiday, stock prices were largely range-bound on Tuesday despite some intraday volatility. Then stocks edged higher, shaking off some new tariff talk and disappointing housing starts data. The S&P 500 marked its third record close of the year on Wednesday.^{3,4}

On Thursday, stocks were under pressure from the start of trading after a weaker-than-expected outlook from a mega-retailer. The update reinforced some concerns that the economy may be slowing. The selling accelerated on Friday after a consumer sentiment survey showed investors are unsettled about the inflation outlook.

Friday's decline was the worst of the young year.⁵

Economic Jitters

Investors were forced to navigate a week of disappointing news about the economy and inflation.

First, traders were surprised to hear about slowing demand at the country's biggest retailer, which soured the outlook for the consumer and the economy. Then, the University of Michigan Consumer Confidence survey fell by 10 percent in February as consumers expressed concerns about higher inflation ahead of possible new tariffs.⁶

This combination prompted investors to move into a "risk-off" position before the weekend.

Receive Your Tax Return Quicker With Direct Deposit

Want to receive your tax return quickly? The IRS recommends filing your return online and providing your direct deposit information. In addition to receiving your refund quicker, using direct deposit has a few other benefits.

Direct deposit is also fast, secure, and accessible. You must provide your bank account and routing number to sign up for direct deposit. Taxpayers should have this information available when ready to file because the IRS can't accept it after filing a return.

This information is not a substitute for individualized tax advice. Please discuss your specific tax issues with a qualified tax professional.

How to Start a Meditation Practice

If you're interested in starting a meditation practice, the good news is that you don't need much to get started. Here are some tips:

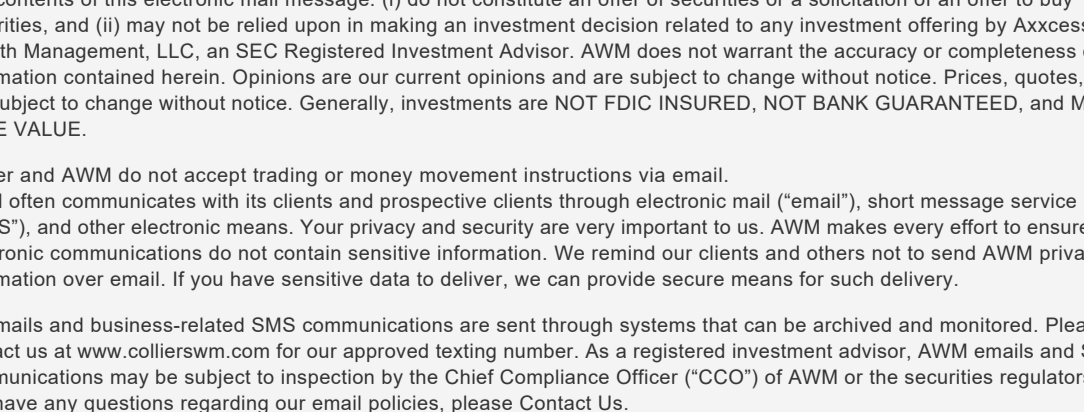

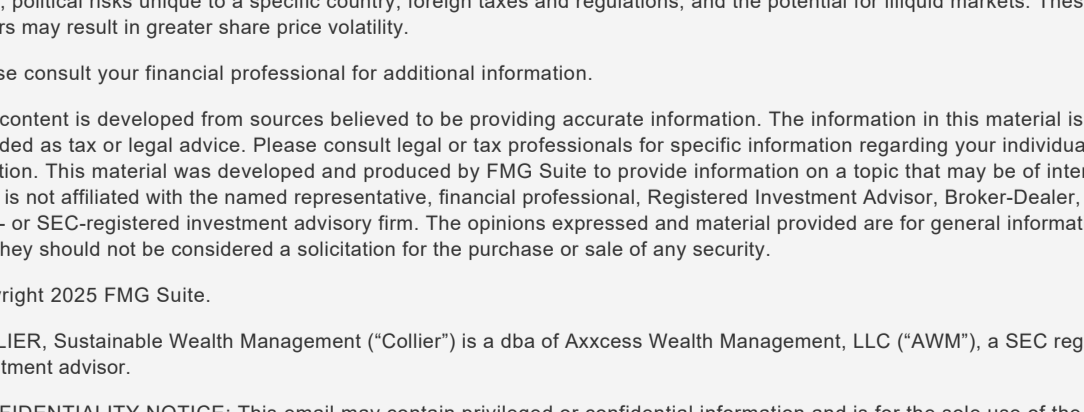

- First, find a place to meditate. It doesn't have to be a dedicated space but should be calming and free from distractions.
- Next, set a time limit. Even just 5 minutes of meditation a day is enough to get started.
- Now, it's time for the actual meditation! Meditation aims to clear your mind of intrusive thoughts and be fully present where you are. Don't focus on not thinking about anything at all. Instead, watch your thoughts float by as you stay centered on your breath.
- If your mind wanders, it's okay! Gently bring it back to the present and focus on your breath or something around you.

Tip adapted from Mindful⁸

I have rosy cheeks, I am round and cute – yet debate persists over whether I am vegetable or fruit. What might I be?

Last week's riddle: I'm comprised of solid ground, and yet I see water all around. What exactly am I?
Answer: An island.
